GROWN STEM ROT AFFECTS LEGUMES

Many fall seedings of alfalfa and clover have thinned out considerably since owners last examined them. County agent, Jim Smith reports that he has witnessed many such cases in recent weeks. There is no control available excepting that a rotation of legumes is important. The disease is caused by a fungus and is more prevalent on new seedings and especially when moisture and temperature conditions are ideal.

New Mail Service Here Starts in April

Acting Postmaster Richard L. Wingfield announces a new highway post office service between Richmond and Lynchburg, commencing April 15. "This new schedule will be a great advantage to the patrons of the local post office and 39 other offices to be served by the proposed HPO," said Mr. Wingfield.

The HPO will supplant service provided by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The office will leave Richmond at 4:50 A. M., serving the towns up the James River to Bremo Bluff and then crossing the river, stopping at six post offices in Buckingham County, and arriving at Appomattox at 9:04 A. M. The HPO will also serve the Spout Spring and Concord offices.

The HPO will leave Lynchburg on its return trip to Richmond at 3:45 P. M., arriving here at 4:25 P. M.

Wingfield stated that it is estimated that the motorized post office will save an estimated $40,000 annually in transportation expenses.

The initial run will be made on April 13 with "first-day covers" for stamp collectors. This run will not be made on the official schedule time.

This additional service will go along with the present mail service here as outlined below:

East Bound

2:13 P. M. First Class and Parcel Post
2:30 A. M. First Class and Parcel Post
West Bound

5:10 P. M. First Class Mail
2:45 A. M. First Class and Parcel Post.

The mail for the 2:30 A. M. East Bound and the 2:45 A. M. West Bound will be made up at 5:45 P. M. on the preceding day.

ELEMENTARY P.-T. A.

The Appomattox Elementary School P.T. A. will meet Thursday, March 21, at 8 P. M. in the school auditorium. After an important business meeting, slides entitled, Scenes Around the World, will be shown by Mr. Charlie Carter. All patrons are urged to attend.

ALFALFA WEEVIL REPORTED IN COUNTY; PLAN WAY TO CONTROL

Making an earlier start than last year, the alfalfa weevil has been found feeding in every alfalfa field visited by the county agent. Farmers should check to determine if it is present. Farmers are urged not to spray too early. Timing of spray is most important. Do not spray until feeding has occurred on all plants. Spray with Emulsifiable Heptachlor. Usually this material contains 2 pounds of actual material per gallon. Then this is true use at the rate of 1-4 pound or one pint per acre in 20 gallons of water at 40 pounds of pressure.

Early spraying will not kill all of the insects as they will not have completed hatching.

ALFALFA WEEVIL CONTROL DEMONSTRATIONS

Two alfalfa weevil control demonstrations have been set up in Appomattox County by County Agent, Jim Smith. Dr. J. O. Rowell, Entomologist, VPI, will assist with the demonstrations. Since the alfalfa weevil has been found on a large number of fields in the county, farmers will be interested in attending one of these demonstration meetings, which are scheduled as follows: at Gene Sears' farm, Pamplin, 10:30 A. M., and at Berkley Garrett's farm on Route 4, at 2:00 P. M., Friday, March 29.

AREA FARM MEETING IS CANCELLED

The area farmers meeting planned for March 22 at the Court House in Farmville, has been cancelled.

The First Lord of the Admiralty recently declared that it was unlikely that battleships would again be used by the British Navy.

A. H. S. Seniors Present Play

The senior class of Appomattox High School will present its annual play, entitled "Rest Assured," a three-act comedy, Thursday night, April 11, at 8 o'clock, in the high school auditorium.

The plot centers around the Morlock family. Mr. Morlock, a self-centered, grouchy old goat, doesn't like anything but money. He refuses to let his daughter, Mary, marry Joe Lanconi because his papa, Luigi, is poor. The two old fellows start a feud The plot is so different thereafter from the average comedy that the audience will be spellbound with continuous hilarity.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Mr. Morlock, a self-centered man of fifty, Frank Hanenkrat.
Mrs. Morlock, a sensible middle-aged mother, Joan Weeks.
Mary, their 20-year-old daughter, Madelin Gulli.

Mildred, the maid, Elsie Moore.
Joe Lanconi, Mary's fiance, Fountain Conner.

Supervisors Present New County Budget

Appomattox Supervisors are presenting to citizens of the county a proposed county budget for the year ending June 30, 1958, which calls for general fund expenditures of $365,092.00, and school fund expenditures of $505,550.82. The Supervisors hope to provide funds for this large outlay without an increase in existing tax rates, but they had to put on a budget-balancing act that should make their skill useful in Washington.

Many Virginia counties are raising tax rates this year, and scanning every available source for new revenue.

Largest item in the budgett is the sum of $314,819.00 for instruction in the public schools.

Last Pre-School Clinic Here

A Pre-school Clinic will be held at Appomattox County Health Center on March 28, 1957, 12:30 to 2:30 P. M., for all children who will enter Appomattox School in September; and also, those who will enter school in September and have not had their pre-school examination, may come at this time.

"COMMAND PERFORMANCE"

A one-act drama, "Command Performance," by Jack Knapp, will be presented at Pamplin Elementary School on Thursday, March 28, at 8 P. M., by the Appomattox High School Beta Club.

An oriental atmosphere dominates the simple stage setting, for the play takes place in the palace of the rich and powerful Maharajah of Sandor. The plot begins immediately after the curtain opens: the Maharajah is demanding a white life in payment for the legal execution of one of his sons. By some strange coincidence, a caravan of Europeans has come to his palace in its wanderings. He cunningly guides them into choosing for themselves, unwittingly, of course, the one to be sacrificed. It is a tense and emotional drama.

The cast includes: Janice McClenny, Nancy Martin, Dorothy Painter, Helen Franklin, Bradley Babcock, Gene Carson, Fountain Conner, Bobby Barger, and Frank Hanenkrat.

NEW CLASS IN PORTRAIT PAINTING

A new series of painting classes, sponsored by the Woman's Club of Appomattox, will start Wednesday night, March 27, at 7:30.

These classes will be under the direction of Hal McIntosh.

The series of ten lessons will stress portraiture.

Anyone wishing to join the class should contact Mrs. S. S. Shouse by calling 2051, or if this does not answer: 5313.

PUPILS INTERVIEWED

Mr. Ivey Holland, Mr. T. DeWitt Evans, Mr. John Grinels, Mr. William Burke and Mr. A. R. Harwood Jr. interviewed students interested in taking Distributive Education and Diversified Occupations last Thursday and Friday at the High School.

One reason for these successful businessmen to interview the students is to help Mrs. Joan Smith, Coordinator, make the final selection of students for these two programs for the next school year. In many cases businessmen can determine the interest of the student and certainly from the employer standpoint can determine if a student will benefit from a specific type of training.

The advisory committee members will also help students decide whether they are better suited for the type of training offered by DE or that in DO.

This type of cooperation on the part of business people is a great help to the school in meeting the training needs of the community.

JUDGE J. W. FLOOD GIVEN CERTIFICATE ON BOND SALES

In recognition of Appomattox County's exceeding its 1956 sales quota of United States Savings Bonds, Judge Joel W. Flood, county chairman for the bond program, has received for patriotic service a second award of the Treasury silver medal represented by a clip to be attached to the medal awarded him last year for similar achievement.

Appomattox County citizens purchased $128,035 of Savings Bonds against a quota of $125,000.

The 1956 award was presented to Judge Flood by Thos. L. Chrisman, Treasury Representative of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, who praised the effective work of the chairman and his volunteer bond forces.

PANEL DISCUSSION FEATURES PROGRAM

The Appomattox High School P.-T. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting in the high school auditorium on Tuesday night, March 26, at 8 o'clock. A panel discussion on the topic: "What My School Should Do For My Child?" will be held, with patrons from various sections of the county taking part.

It is hoped that parents throughout the county, whether members of this P.T. A. or not, will attend. Parents of incoming eighth graders are especially invited to attend.

F. H. A. ACTIVITIES

The F. H. A. girls of Appomattox H. S. had no speaker for their meeting Friday and spent the club period talking over business matters.

Tuesday, March 19, Miss Laura Mottley, Carrie Inge and Frances Carson went to William Campbell H. S. to the F. H. A. Federation planning meeting. Carrie Inge, the Federation Historian, worked with the officers from other schools to select the slate of officers for next year. Frances Carson, who was running for an office from A. H. S., was nominated for the office of secretary. The slate will be voted on at the Spring Rally to be held April 5 at Altavista. All the girls of the club are eligible to attend the all-day meeting.

A volley ball tournament will be held Thursday night at William Campbell. The six schools of the Federation: Appomattox, Altavista, Brookville, William Campbell, Concord and Rustburg, will each have teams. Girls making up the Appomattox team are: Peggy Woolridge, Kitty V. Wood, Sue Hunter, Daphne Smith, Shirley Burge, Jean Patrick, Agnes Burks, Emily Phelps and Carrie Jane Inge.

TRANSCO STATION HERE SIX YEARS

Employees of Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation and their families celebrated the sixth anniversary of the start-up of the Compressor Station at Appomattox with a Fish Supper, entertainment and dance in the American Legion Hall on Friday, March 15. Invited guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph R. Darden, of Rocks Baptist Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. McCann.

Frank M. McCann, local attorney who filed some weeks ago as candidate for Mayor of the Town of Appomattox, yesterday withdrew as a candidate. Mr. McCann cited a provision in the general laws of Virginia which would seem to preclude as a candidate anyone who had not resided in the town for a full year prior to election. Mr. McCann established residence in the Town of Appomattox June 15, 1956. The election this year is on June 11.

His withdrawal leaves incumbent Mayor Richard D. Robinson unopposed for the June 11 balloting.

The deadline for candidates to file is April 10, sixty days before the election.

Already there are ten candidates for the six places on the Town Council, including all incumbents, except W. S. Gills; three former members and two newcomers in town elections.

Boatwright Reconsiders; Will Run

Delegate John B. Boatwright this week announced that after reconsideration, he would be a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates, to represent Appomattox, Buckingham and Cumberland Counties.

Previously, Mr. Boatwright, a veteran legislator, had stated that he did not plan to offer for another term. However, a growing pressure from constituents in the district prevailed upon Mr. Boatwright to reconsider. He is chairman of the powerful General Laws Committee, and of a new committee on Offenses Against the Administration of Justice.

Mr. Boatwright served in the House back in the mid-twenties, giving him a longer legislative record than any other member of that body.
